The Stepping Stone

OCTOBER 2018

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the LORD Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it."
Malachi 3:10

Dear Church Family,

Grace and peace to you from God the Father and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This has been a beautiful September! God has blessed us with fresh vision for Faith Journey United Methodist Church. It is important to know that your Ministries Council is working hard to carry out the mission of the church which is to "Seek, Serve, and Share God with others." We look forward to growing from our time of transition and living into this calling as a people of God.

For today's newsletter article I wanted to share my heart with you. In my private study time I turned to the prophet Malachi for some guidance on tithes and offerings. I chose this passage as a reminder of the faithfulness of God. This is the only area where the Lord tells us that we are allowed to test him. Friends you cannot out give God and generosity is good for the heart. I want to thank you for all your faithfulness over the years to the Faith Journey United Methodist Church. Without your giving of financial resources, the church would not exist.

A couple of weeks ago during Sunday Morning worship the church leadership reported to the congregation on the state of the church. This was a concerning report because it highlighted the financial struggles that the Faith Journey Church is having at this time. Our income is less than our expenses and that means that every month decisions have to be made as to what to pay and what not to pay. Lately this has been coming too close for comfort. Weeks have come and gone where the question of paying staff or utilities comes first. Staff has and always will come first as we are obligated for their services rendered.

One of the most vital areas that has not been paid are the pastor's pension, health insurance, disability, and shared ministry costs. This is a problem and it cannot go on as the status quo. The next few months will be critical as the Ministry Council makes decisions as how to meet these needs. I urge you to be praying and asking God how you can be part of the solution.

I realize that this might come as a shock, believe me it was for me. I have only been serving as your pastor since July and trying to navigate these financial issues has been a challenge. However, I am confident that the best days of this church are out ahead of us. God has not brought us this far to leave us. We are facing an extraordinary financial situation that can easily make or break this ministry. I need your faith and your support in this time to right this financial ship and to move forward with the ministry plans that are already under way. We need to lean on God and trust He will provide for our needs.

I am hopeful that by working together we can solve these financial issues and be poised for greatness. There has never been a more critical moment in life of the church which needs your active involvement to provide for a solution. Please consider your response prayerfully. If you have questions about the finances of the church please contact me at pastordanielbradley@yahoo.com or call me at the office 315-652-9186 or at the parsonage 315-314-6595 in the evening. I am looking for partners who together will invest in the future of this great church. Please consider becoming a partner in faith. I am counting on God to come through in our time of need.

In Christ,

Rev. Daniel F. Bradley

Druss Kususi

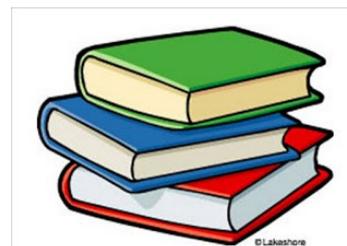

A program that tutors our New World Ministries children

Druss Kususi started September 22nd. We had 12 children attending. Because it was a special day at Path of Life we shortened the time for tutoring a little. We asked the children to come up with goals for the coming school year. In addition, we asked them to tell us what they are working on right now in every subject and what they think they need to work on. Of course, we had snack and lunch. We weren't able to do any cooking due to time constraints and not being sure whether we would have access to the kitchen or not.

With 12 children in the group we really need some more tutors. If you have any interest in working with children to improve their academic skills please consider joining us. You don't need to be there every week if you are unable. We follow the school schedule and cancel for the weeks that they are out of school. You can be assigned to work with one or a small group of kids. A teaching background isn't required and is unnecessary to work with the younger children. A background check is required and a sincere desire to help children is needed.

If you aren't able or interested in working with children we can always use donations. We provide a simple morning snack and lunch during the program. Most of the time the children don't wake up in time for breakfast at home and come in hungry. They also really appreciate having a meal before they leave. Donations of juice boxes – the larger size and only 100% juice please, Pop Tarts – preferably Cinnamon and sugar, S'Mores, Strawberry with frosting; paper plates, cups, plastic knives, forks and spoons are helpful. We also need to purchase workbooks for the kids so donations for food or supplies are greatly appreciated and can be in the form of gift cards to Wegmans, Price Chopper, Walmart, Five Below, Dollar Tree or Ollie's or cash or check. Make sure your donations are clearly labeled for Druss Kususi so that they get to the correct place.

If you have any questions please contact Kathy LaDuca.

Our Christian Pumpkin

Our pumpkin lies on the dirty ground
With other pumpkins all around.
We pick it for its special role
Wash and polish, then a hole
We cut, to take the the seeds away
Seeds of doubt, greed and dismay.
A smiling mouth carefully carves
And all at once, our pumpkin laughs!
Two eyes we carve to give it sight
Then last of all, we add a light
And it's pumpkiny glory shines so bright
To chase off the shadows of night.

MINISTRIES

Path of life News:

Many of you have met at least some of the Sudanese, Karennis, and Nepalis who make up the congregations at Path of Life Ministries in Mattydale. They have attended worship here at Clay and used space in the former Andrews Memorial. They have been at Andy's Camp and have come to some special events here. Some of you have been to Mattydale to help with tutoring or Sunday School. The first Sudanese were actually members of Andrews Memorial.

There have been some new, exciting developments that I would like to make you aware of. The Karenni church now owns the Mattydale building. On Saturday, September 22 all of the congregations using the space held a worship service there together – symbolizing working together as refugee congregations in Mattydale. They then held a cleaning day and shared a meal. Everyone, from the oldest members to some of the youngest children participated. It was an exciting day!

The Rev. Sean Chanthasone continues to work with the Karenni and Nepalis in order to help them build their congregations and learn what it means to be United Methodist. He spent time explaining to me the hopes they have for building renovation and new programming. He has obtained some money from one of the national church boards to help fund some of the things they are hoping to do.

We are very excited about the possibilities that exist now that they have access to the building as needed which will allow them to have space for new programs and ministries.

TRIVIA

October shares a root with octopus and octothorpe—the Latin octo-, meaning "eight." In the Roman calendar, which had only ten months, October was month eight, as January and February hadn't been added to the calendar yet! The numerical name of ten stuck; even after Julius Caesar expanded the calendar year from ten months to twelve. October entered Old English via Old French, replacing the English vernacular term Winterfylleð.

Marigold

October Gemstone:

OCTOBER Quotes

October is the month for painted leaves.... As fruits and leaves and the day itself acquire a bright tint just before they fall, so the year near its setting. October is its sunset sky; November the later twilight. ~Henry David Thoreau, "Autumnal Tints"

October was a beautiful month at Green Gables, when the birches in the hollow turned as golden as sunshine and the maples behind the orchard were royal crimson and the wild cherry trees along the lane put on the loveliest shades of dark red and bronzy green, while the fields sunned themselves in the after-maths. Anne reveled in the world of color about her.... "I'm so glad I live in a world where there are Octobers. It would be terrible if we just skipped from September to November, wouldn't it?..." ~Lucy Maud Montgomery (1874-1942), Anne of Green Gables, 1908

Listen! the wind is rising,
and the air is wild with leaves.
We have had our summer evenings,
now for October eves.

5 Verses to Breathe Life into your Dry Bones

Be still. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth. (Psalm 46:10)

Trust Him. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake. (Psalm 23:2-3)

Take a load off. Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will give rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light. (Matthew 11:28-30)

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones." Proverbs 17:22

Discover shalom. I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. (John 16:33)

SCRIPTURE OF THE MONTH - OCTOBER

Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is put out of sight! Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of guilt, whose lives are lived in complete honesty!

FALL COOKING!

It's that time of year y'all!

Don't you just love it when the leaves start to fall, it's getting cooler, windows are open in the house and you smell the apple pie in the oven. I love going to the apple orchard and pick the apples straight from the tree, what a gift from God. So, take some time, sit on the front porch, drink a cup of coffee and let the whisper of God's voice speak to you...it's in the falling leaves and wind.

SAMARITAN CENTER

In September we started a new curriculum called Deep Blue Connects At Home With God. The first unit was about Jesus' Family. It seemed a little strange to the children to be talking about Jesus birth at the beginning of the school year but when all the sessions for the unit are put together it's a great starting place to learn about who Jesus might have considered his family. The sessions included Jesus birth, Jesus in the temple at 12, Jesus baptism (God's Family), Jesus choosing the disciples and Jesus and the children.

In October we will be studying a unit entitled, "We Are Family". Lessons will include Family Blessings, Joseph and His Brothers, Moses and His Sister and Sisters. The theme is, "Look at how good and pleasing it is when families live together as one!" Psalm 133:1

Nepali Sunday School

Connie Clark works with the children during the earliest service at Mattydale for the Nepali congregation. There are approximately 15 children in that group. Some of the Nepali women and older children come down to help. This group has a lot of younger children, so they need extra help getting their work done.

Karenni Sunday School

The Karenni class is next. Children from age 2 through elementary school come to class. The class hears the lesson works on the booklets and enjoys the craft. The children often have to split their time between watching their younger siblings and doing class work. They have taken a couple of Sundays off as they have picnics or visit Sean Chanthasone and the Binghamton church.

New World Ministry Sunday School

The Sudanese group has between 5 and 10 children. They enjoy the workbooks and the younger ones also spend time working on the craft.

Clay Sunday School

The Clay Sunday School continues to have a number of children each week. In addition, there are usually younger ones for the nursery. We enjoy spending time working on the worksheets together and doing the craft. All school age children participate and preschoolers who are interested sometimes listen to the story or color a worksheet. If you are interested in helping with any of the Sunday Schools or are available to sub when one of the teachers is away please contact Kathy LaDuca.

Update on the C&B building

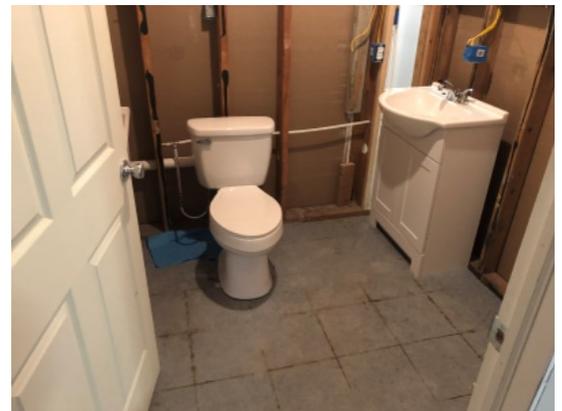

Work continues, thanks to all the dedicated volunteers who give their time to help this vision come to fruition. We now have a working bathroom and a donor has come forward to pay to have the sheetrock finished (thanks so much). We have three bids for the driveway and are moving forward with identifying ways to get this installed. Please keep this important ministry in your prayers as we work to envision how to finish and utilize this space. Here is a list of the latest progress.

Do you have some extra time this summer? Work days continue on Thursday and Saturdays 9:00 - noon with a few other days mixed in during the week. We have a tentative goal of being ready to open for the Back-to-School season, but we need more help. All talents and abilities are welcome to help out. Please contact the office 315-652-9186 or Mike Jordan 315-657-4199 if you have time to offer.
