January 8, 2021

Dear Friends,

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ! Happy New Year!

2021 is here, and we are witnesses to Jesus Birth. The Lord of Lord's, the Prince of peace, has come into this world to set things right. As witnesses to Jesus' birth, our attitude and focus should be on the things we can see and understand to be God's work in our world.

How is God working in your life? What good are you seeing?

I know how hard it can be to see God in the middle of a storm; the key is not to give up but keep looking for the light in the distance.

Early on in my ministry career, I worked at a small summer camp called Camp Findley. It is on Findley Lake. We still return there every year for vacations and retreats. The lake is about five miles all the way around with an Island in the middle. On the island is a summer home with boat docks. As a camp counselor, we were asked not to go behind the island with the Sunfish Sailboats. The wind shear was just too much for the little craft. One Saturday morning at about 7 am, I got out on the lake with the sailboat. It was perfectly calm. As I went behind the island with the craft, attempting to go around it, a storm came out of nowhere. There was lightning and wind and waves. I was all alone on the lake.

There was nothing I could do. I lowered my sail and removed the mast, and sat there in the middle of the storm. Waves kept crashing over the boat's bow, and I was being pushed into the break wall on the island. I began to cry and pray. Soon after, my Camp Director, Rev. Gary Greenwald, came out with the ski boat and threw me a rope. He pulled me into shore just as the wind and the lightning came to an end. After a stern scolding, we hauled the boat ashore and packed up the mast and its sails. I was humiliated and ashamed for not listening to the rules.

God works in ways that I don't understand. Where did that storm come from on this calm summer's morning? Why then and there? Was God trying to get my attention? Was this God's way of saying that I need to pray? I don't know. I know this; if God wants to make a point, God will and use any means necessary.

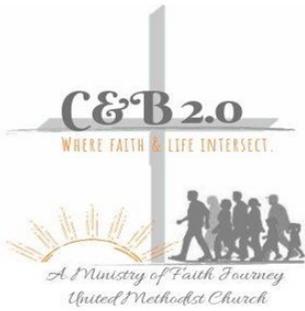

I never expected that the first week of 2021 would bring us an assault on the Capitol Building. I was horrified and shocked. I felt helpless. I prayed and watched. As a result of that siege, five people have died. This act of violence is inexcusable. What are we to do when we see such unrest take place? We pray. We pray like we never have before, and we reach out in faith for Jesus, who has come to set things right.

2021 has the potential to be a great year; however, it is up to us to make it great. It is up to us to go through 2021 with a positive attitude and fresh spirit that looks for God's things and not to the disasters of humanity. Being out on that lake that summer's morning taught me two things. Storms will come when we least expect them, and God is never far from us. There will be storms, winds, and waves. They will threaten to sink our sailboats, but take heart God is with us, and God will protect us.

I pray for each of you in 2021 that this year will be the best for you and your family. I pray that God will help you see the light amidst the storm and that your faith will be strengthened. I know that God will bless you and protect you in this time of uncertainty and faith challenges. You are not alone; your rescue boat is coming. Pray. Pray continually and never lose heart, for God is with you and for you.

In Christ,

Rev Daniel J. Bradley

THANKS
TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

A huge thank you to all those that took some time to help us at C&B over the holiday break: Gail & Jim Wentworth, Butch & Sandy Remington, Judy & Gordon Bylsma, Chad & Stefanie (Olivia, Grayson and Hudson too), Mike & Beth Jordan, Duane Simmons, Mike Begnoche, Dave Zogg, Donna Mills, Sandy Humphrey, Donna Timmerman, Eileen Englehart. We couldn't have done it without you. Looking forward to seeing your bright smiles to finish off the space and welcome customers to C&B in 2021.

Please take a moment to check out all the work that has been done in the 'house' – we now have a working furnace and plumbing, the hanging of insulation and sheetrock in the space is now complete and the sheetrock is being finished.

Thank you to Raulli Steele for donating and installing a beautiful railing which completes the look of the kitchenette area. Still needs finishing before we open: bathroom, painting, floor and ramp as well as little detail work. Prayers for a healthy community and a vision for the space is needed to complete this project and open it to the community by summer 2021.

The sorting room floor has been painted and reorganized

We got a call today for a plea for winter coats, hats, gloves, scarfs and socks for men in Syracuse. Thank you Beautiful Mess Ministries for reaching out and allowing C&B 2.0 the opportunity to help out!

Q: How successful is C&B 2.0?

A: Thanks to you, we have created so many relationships with other non-profit organizations and ministries. We have the best volunteers ever! We also have the best, most dedicated customers (friends) who support us by shopping, donating, sharing what we do and who we are and find ways to be in mission with us. Our little store brought in over $15,000 in 2020 (and we were closed for 2.5 months)! This exceeded all expectations and we know we will do even more in 2021.

Q: What is in store for C&B 2.0 in 2021?

A: More relationships will blossom; more donations will arrive and more sales will be made. The store will continue to experience mini facelifts in order to optimize our appearance, organization and efficiency. C&B 2.0 will be an integral cog in the Mission Central's Campus – and we will pilot and roll-out events and opportunities for the community to attend and be a part of.

SPECIAL SUNDAY Human Relations Day

"Human Relations Day is January 17, 2021. Prepare to celebrate this important Special Sunday with us. This year when there was unrest in our country, funds from the Human Relations Day offering helped annual conferences support peaceful demonstrations, food, access to medication, and rebuilding efforts for communities impacted by negative acts.

Human Relations Day calls United Methodists to recognize the right of all God's children to realize their full potential as human beings and in relationship with one another. This special offering benefits neighborhood ministries through Community Developers, community advocacy through United Methodist Voluntary Services and works with at-risk teens through the Youth Offender Rehabilitation Program. Thank you for your faithful giving to the Human Relations Day offering."

January - Happy New Year!

Here's to a new year with new beginnings! I hope 2021 brings happiness, peace and blessings to you all. I'm praying that with the distribution of the vaccine, this upcoming year will be filled with less stress, turmoil and heart-breaking loss. I have been busy with my new puppy and have high hopes for the year ahead. I feel very grateful for this past year even with all its unexpected events and problems. I have learned a lot about myself and have come out of 2020 with a positive outlook towards the future. I think we all learned a lot this year and I hope that when life slowly returns to normal, we find gratitude in the little things that we once overlooked.

C&B 2.0 donated 30 boxes of clothing to the Red Bird Mission and collected shoeboxes at the church in December, we received an update from the Red Bird Mission and wanted to share it with you.

Greetings,

This year's trip to the Red Bird Mission was very successful. We took 2,025 shoeboxes filled with personal hygiene items, 25 boxes of diapers, over 75 new sheet sets, over 100 backpacks filled with school supplies, handmade scarves, and other miscellaneous items. We drove one 26-foot truck to Kentucky and intend to take another 26-foot truck with clothing and food sometimes in March of 2021.

This year we kept a record of the hours and miles put into this mission. Our drivers drove approximately 4,662 miles picking up donations throughout the Upper New York Conference and driving to Kentucky. The team spent over 400 hours on this mission.

As we look forward to next year's mission, we would like churches to consider donating shoeboxes, backpacks, new blankets and sheet sets, and diapers. The need for clothing is not as critical this time of the year as the warehouse at the mission is usually full of gently used clothes. New clothes will still be taken to the Community Outreach Center for distribution.

Once again, I would like to personally thank all of you for your support of this vital mission. It is such a good feeling to know how God works to provide for those in need.

Merry Christmas and have a safe and happy New Year.

DONATION

Pennellville United Methodist Church donated 3 large boxes of hand-knit gloves, hats and mittens to contribute to the Hat, Mitten and Sock tree donation we collect for the month of December and we have donated them to the Vera House and St. Joe's. We also collected an offering of $450 for In My Father's Kitchen during the month of December.

Thank you so much for your support during the holiday season!

"The week between Christmas and New Year's 20 poinsettias were delivered from church by 10 fellow church members to shut-ins. I know those I delivered to were pleased to receive a poinsettia. Most wished I could have come in and visited. If you'd like to make a new friend and visit regularly for now by phone and later in person let the church office know and we'll help you pick out someone who would welcome your visits."

From Beth Schnipp

"Dear Friends, I want to thank you so much for remembering me at the holiday. That beautiful plant did so much to brighten up my apartment. It was so nice to be thought of. I don't get out much in winter and look forward to the nice weather again."

Thanks again for thinking of me."
