October 29, 2020

Dear Friends,

It is in Jesus's name that I greet you this evening. I trust that you have been blessed this week by the power of God and the ministry of the Holy Spirit. I pray God blesses you always as you live a holy life and set apart for God's purposes. Grace & Peace be with you.

In the flash of a lightning bolt, October has disappeared. The day has given way tonight, the leaves are falling, and the frost of the fall air is at our back. Time goes by too quickly these days. I remember my daughter taking her first steps; it seems like yesterday. Today before my eyes is a mature thirteen-year-old whose wisdom grows more resonant with each passing moment. I am proud of the woman that my daughter is becoming. It gives Kiah's mom and me great pleasure to know we are raising a young woman who loves the Lord and wants to be in service to her church and community. This summer, Kiah spent at the Cradle & Beyond Store as a volunteer and helped serve at the Chicken BBQ's and the Roast Beef Dinner. She loves working with the other volunteers and does it with a smile on her face. I hope that she will be confirmed Christ in the Spring of 2021.

Our children are reflections of us. They show us our strengths and weaknesses. They bring us our tears and joys. They lead us in paths of righteousness when we have lost our way. God gives us children that we may look at the world with awe and wonder. Children bring out the best in each of us. We are forever to be in their debt. I recall my childhood playing in the sandbox with the neighborhood kids. We had shovels, pails, tractors, trucks, and bulldozers. We played for hours, and inevitably someone would always get their feelings hurt because they didn't have a turn with a specific toy. Mrs. Dolan would come out of the house and comfort the child and encourage us to take turns. We would hug one another, forgive one another, and we would play in the sandbox of life.

Giving and forgiving go hand in hand. You can't have one without the other. We are to give of ourselves to God, but also forgive one another when we are harmed. We are not to hold grudges or commit malice acts against another human being. We are called to this sacred time as a time of giving life and extending mercy. What good does it do to hold a grudge? What good does it do to have hate in your heart for your fellow brother or sister in Christ? It burdens you! It keeps you back from God's blessing. When you harbor anger, bitterness, pain, and suffering, you hurt and destroy your spirit. Forgiving is a tough thing to do when the wounds are deep and traumatic. Forgiving is a process of working through the pain that the other person caused you.

We are to live in an attitude of forgiveness so that we might receive forgiveness for our sins from God. When we give life with our words, actions, and deeds, we glorify God. When we don't, we bring sin and shame. We have a choice to make. We can choose to live fully under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, or we can become sin's slave. It's your choice. This time is your moment to make the most of your relationship with God.

"Give, and it will be given to you: A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be poured into your lap. For the measure you use will be the measure you receive."

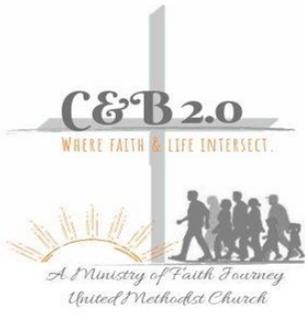

This fall, we started over. We re-entered our sanctuary, and we have averaged 47 in-person worshipers each week. Our Facebook Live video continues to gain viewers. We average about 150 views a week. We also have our worship videos on our own vimeo.com site. The web address is www.vimeo.com/channels/fjumc. Check us out! All of our worship from March and on is accessible.

- November 17 – 7:00 pm Charge Conference only Members of the Ministries Council are to be present. Next year we will be holding a Church Conference in which the whole of our members will be welcome.
- On November 24 at 7:00 pm, we will have a Thanksgiving Worship service. I encourage you to attend with your family and friends. We will break bread and celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion. There is no better way to start Thanksgiving week than in praise to almighty God. Come and be blessed.

I hope that you and your family will be blessed this month and that you will continue to serve God faithfully as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Go forth in the knowledge and grace of God at this moment to love and serve God.

In Christ,

Rev. Daniel J. Bradley

SCRIPTURE OF THE MONTH - NOVEMBER - "ALWAYS GRATEFUL"

"One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him."

- Luke 17:15-16

November- Happy Thanksgiving!

I blink and another month has come and gone, I don't know how this year keeps flying by! I know the holiday season won't be the same as years past, but I hope we find alternative ways to safely celebrate with family and friends. My husband and I are planning on doing a Thanksgiving dinner just the two of us. Even if the holidays are different this year, we can always find ways to make it memorable and special nonetheless. My hope is that everybody will follow the recommendations so we can get closer to a solution without more unnecessary loss of life. I remain hopeful that a vaccine will provide some relief and allow us to move forward, but in the meantime, stay safe and continue to use precaution measures to protect yourself and your family.

It is that time of year to think about the shoebox mission for the Red Bird Mission in Kentucky. I realize that things are tough for a lot of churches, but the Red Bird Mission is still in need of shoeboxes filled with personal hygiene supplies, new backpacks filled with school supplies, and new sheets, blankets, towels and washcloths. They also are in need of diapers, wipes, and cleaning supplies.

Items needed for the adult shoe boxes (please mark for a man or woman) include a comb/brush, shampoo, hand lotion, deodorant, toothbrush, toothpaste, Chapstick, full-size bar of bath soap, washcloth, disposable razors, shaving cream, nail care supplies, mittens, scarf, hat, socks, and work gloves.

A suggested donation of $1 is requested per shoebox to help with shipping costs. This monetary donation should not be placed inside the box, rather it should be placed in an envelope and taped to the box.

We are also collecting gently used clothing that is packed in cardboard boxes and labeled with Ladies, Men's, Boys, and Girls Clothing. (We are also asking people to label the shoeboxes with Adult Male, Adult Female, Boys and Girls, as this helps in getting them to the proper area once we unload at the Red Bird Mission.)

The team is also looking for monetary donations to help cover the cost of the trip to Kentucky. Please Do Not put money in the shoeboxes. Checks can be made payable to Endwell UMC to be deposited in a dedicated line for this mission. The cost of the truck rentals has gone up this year.

Last year we filled two 26-foot trucks with items for the Red Bird Mission. We appreciate all your support in the past and hope you will consider helping again this year by donating shoeboxes and other items listed above, and by making a monetary donation to support this mission trip. This is such a blessing for the people in Kentucky.

Please bring in adult shoeboxes to the church by Sunday 11/15 that includes: a comb or brush, shampoo, hand lotion, deodorant, a toothbrush and toothpaste, chap stick, a full size bar of soap, a washcloth, disposable razors, shaving cream, nail care supplies, socks, a pair of work gloves or mittens, and a winter hat or scarf.
