“And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts—<sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics.<sup>10</sup> And he said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. <sup>11</sup> And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.”<sup>12</sup> So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. <sup>13</sup> And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.” – Mark 6:7-13

Many times in life, we are presented with an impossible task. Changing the world is just one of those things we are asked to do.

I recall being a new preacher in my first appointment and thinking, “What have I gotten myself into?” This journey which has spanned over twenty years, still has me asking that same question. I don’t have an answer, but I know this; God has not let me go from God’s sight. Whenever I think I can escape, God gets a hold of me and won’t let me go. Don’t get me wrong, I have fought God and struggled with God just as Jacob wrestled with God in the wilderness, but there is a blessing in the end.

On July 1, 2022, I started my fifth year under appointment as your pastor, and I find myself asking a new question, “Where do we go from here?” Do we go up? Down? Turn left, or right? Does the future look bright or dim? The answer to that question is that we go where the Lord leads.

Jesus sent the disciples out two by two to do the work that Jesus was doing. He gave them the ability to heal the sick and drive out demons. He sent them out with nothing but the clothes on their back, and they came back with stories to tell of the miraculous things that God had done.

The disciples had each other, but most importantly, they had faith that they could change the world through their actions. As a result, lives were touched that are too numerous to count in so many ways.

Have you been called and sent out?

The answer to that question is a resounding “YES!” God has called you from your birth and baptism for the excellent work of the kingdom. No one does this alone.

Who is your partner in faith? Who are you walking with? Where does God want you to go?

These are questions we all must ask of ourselves and God. They are the questions that keep me up at night and cause me to think there must be more to this ministry. God never leaves us or forsakes us in these times of questioning. God wants us to search deep inside and see the gifts we have been given and use them for God’s glory, not our own.

When we deal with the reality that we are part of a larger world, we must also recognize that our responsibility is more significant than we think. We must place ourselves on the shores of heaven, see God's vastness, and remember our position as the ones standing on the shoreline.

When the disciples return, they want to tell Jesus about their actions. Jesus tells them to come to a quiet place and get some rest. The quiet place leads to crowds of people hungry for the gospel message and physically hungry from the journey. Jesus tells the disciples to give them something to eat. Five loaves and two fish fed 5,000 men and numerous women and children.

A disciple follows Jesus and listens to his words. A disciple does what his master does. A disciple feeds people spiritually and physically. We must do these things to live out our baptismal covenant.

We are responsible for our actions and inactions. We are responsible for our small corner of the world. The question, "What have I gotten myself into?" It is answered by God, "just wait and see!"

The upcoming year for Faith Journey United Methodist Church will be filled with grace and love. It will be challenging. We will be asked to wear nothing but clothes on our backs and take no food or money with us for the journey. We will do what Jesus told us to do. We will clothe the naked, feed the hungry, and drive out the demons. When we do these things is when the blessings of God come. This season will be a year of prayer and faith. I am proud to be your pastor and on the road with you.

Together we will keep changing the world one person at a time. We are making a difference in Clay and North Syracuse. We are doing what seems impossible, but take heart and hand—we are not alone. Hold fast to one another and trust God with your heart, mind, and soul. Focus on the mission before you and leave the details to God.

Go with God, dear friends; go with God.

In Christ,

WORLD COMMUNIONS SUNDAY

Sunday, October 2, 2022

On World Communion Sunday - United Methodists, in conjunction with other denominations and believers worldwide, participate in communion to recognize our unity in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. This universal and inclusive connection is the foundation of the special offering for World Communion Sunday.

Your donations support racial and ethnic students in achieving their educational goals and transforming communities. In 2021, World Communion Sunday offerings awarded 242 scholarships and grants. Your generosity continues to provide scholarships, grants, mentoring and training for leadership development. The needs exceed what we can fund and your gifts can further growth and success.

The United Methodist Church, the world and our communities are in a time of transition. Now, perhaps more than ever, we are called to extend healing and hope which will guide us to becoming a new creation in Christ. Through our gifts and support, we can invest in talented, qualified students from around the globe to transform the world as witnesses for Christ!

Our 7 day bucket sale was a huge success! We sold 171 buckets (equivalent to 684 gallons of merchandise!) in addition to other sales. Thanks to the sorters and volunteers who helped us switch over to fall and winter stuff, which means some organizations will be getting some donations! Thanks to Judy Bylsma, we were able to give the Humane Society some baskets. We are also delivering shoes and sneakers to the Discount Shoe Store where they will be revamped and given out to those in need (thanks to Ralph Rotella). Baby items like clothes, furniture and toys will be given to Nee Hope Family Services and sheets will be given to Hekoing Hounds. We have a box of books that will be sent to KY at the request of a BOE of Letcher Co KY schools sharing that three of the schools libraries were flooded and are in desperate need of books.

We are excited for Bills Football Sundays - Mike and Beth Jordan got the app on the TVs so that we can access NFL on CBS and watch the Bills games. We were also able to secure these amazing tables, our work crew cleaned, painted and assembled them and they match perfectly with our 'house' décor. It's so awesome all the progress we have made so far and we are excited for all the future events that will be held at the house side of the building.

October

The last two months have just flown by! I can't believe it's already October! The weather has definitely been cooler, but I hope we don't get snow for a while! Over the last month, I've celebrated multiple birthdays and have been having a lot of fun volunteering at Cradle & Beyond on Tuesday nights. It's been so fulfilling and nice meeting those within the local community and some people who live outside of CNY but stop by to see what we are all about! The outreach of our mission has been such a wonderful blessing to the community and I feel like we make a difference with each connection we make! Don't forget we have tons of exciting things happening at Faith Journey this month, including the Elvis concert and the Annual Roast Beef Dinner Drive-Thru. Also included in the newsletter is local events happening around CNY for the spooky season!

Open every day of the week in September/October from 9:00 am - 6:00 pm (Also open Monday Columbus Day 9am-6pm)

Scripture Writing plans are something you can do every day and it will help you in your journey with God. Get your bible out and write out the scripture for that day. It is a proven fact that when you write something down is resonates more fully than just reading it.

So, write it out and speak those words into reality, this will also help with memorization of the word of God and your daily walk with Him.

Roasted Apple Bread

“Apple Bread with Walnuts! This delicious apple bread is studied with cinnamon sugar roasted apples and crunchy walnuts. A perfect fall treat to bake for the family or a get together! This recipe is also naturally vegetarian and vegan.”

<https://www.thekitchenprepblog.com/roasted-apple-bread/>

Recipe by: The Kitchen Prep Blog

INGREDIENTS

Ingredients:

- ◆ 2 cups peeled, chopped apples like Granny Smith or Honeycrisp
- ◆ 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- ◆ 3 tablespoons sugar + 1 teaspoon, divided
- ◆ 3 1/4 cups bread flour *see notes
- ◆ 1 cup white whole wheat flour
- ◆ 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- ◆ 1/2 teaspoons instant yeast
- ◆ 1 3/4 cups warm water
- ◆ 1 cup coarsely chopped toasted walnuts or pecans

DIRECTIONS

ROAST APPLES:

1. Preheat the oven to 425 degrees. Prepare a baking pan by lining with parchment paper.
2. Place chopped apples on the pan and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Bake for 10-12 minutes or until just starting to become tender. Remove from the oven, set aside or store until later.

MAKE BREAD DOUGH:

1. In a large bowl or the bowl of a stand mixer, combine flours and salt.
2. In a small bowl, stir yeast and 1 teaspoon sugar into warm water, and allow to sit for 5-10 minutes or until it starts to foam.
3. Pour liquid into the dry mixture, and mix until the flour has been absorbed and a sticky dough is formed. Cover the bowl with a sheet of plastic wrap and place it in a warm, dark place to rise for about 8 hours or overnight.
4. When the dough has risen, turn it out onto a floured surface and work in the roasted apples and nuts, if using by folding and kneading into the dough.
5. Grease a large stoneware baker, crock or Dutch oven. Shape the dough into a ball and place smooth side up in the oiled dish. Cover, and let it rise for another 2 hours.
6. When the bread has risen, you may bake it directly in the crock or Dutch oven, covered, or you can transfer it to a baking stone or baking pan and bake “freeform”.

BAKE BREAD:

1. Place it in a cold oven and then set the temperature to 425 degrees. Bake for 45-55 minutes until the outside is brown and crisp and the bread sounds hollow when you tap it. (If you have a baking thermometer, you’ll want the middle to register to 205 degrees.)
2. If you used a lid for the baking vessel, remove it for the last 5-15 minutes of baking so the crust can brown.
3. Remove from oven and allow to cool before slicing with a serrated knife.

Notes*

- If you do not have bread flour or white whole wheat flour, this recipe may be made with all purpose flour only.
