Grace goes the distance. It's not a trot or a sprint. It's a marathon that runs with us from the time of our conception and birth. From this day until eternity. Grace.

I still am not a runner unless chased by a bear. Even then, I fear my legs would give out and I would become a tasty meal for the old grizzly beast. It's not that I don't like the idea of being able to go far; it's I have never had the opportunity to learn how to stride and run while controlling my breathing and muscle movements. But, put me on a bike, and it's a different story.

I admire people who can run 26.2 miles in a marathon. That takes some doing. It takes conditioning and practice of running long and short sprints to get your body acclimated for the big run. If you doubt me, just ask Rev. Alan Kinney. Even at his pristine age, he still runs. Chances are, a bear is chasing him.

Where is God's will be taking you today? What about the church? What plans and visions can you see God bringing into fruition that you didn't see before?

The things of God are like conditioning for a marathon. You don't become proficient overnight. It takes time. It takes practice, and it must be done daily. This marathon, however, should not be seen as a chore but an opportunity to draw close to the heart of God. Reading the bible is vital for this type of conditioning, as is praying. Praying is like breathing in and out the spirit of God. These two things are essential in the story of salvation which is capped off with the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Friends, I am not perfect. I make mistakes and sin often. What separates my walk from most is my acts of repentance and seeking God's forgiveness. I would like to run a mile just once before I die. Maybe a 5k. I want the world to know I did it and didn't shy away from the challenge. Who knows, with the proper training, I might just run a marathon? Ok, let's be realistic; a mile will be just fine. You know I am not the great Rev. Kinney.

Maxie Dunam, the former president of Asbury Theological Seminary, once said, "God's will, will not take you where God's grace won't sustain you."

I believe the best days for Faith Journey are not behind us but are out in front of us. I believe that God has in store for us more than we can ever imagine. It's ours for the taking; we just need to close our eyes, open our hands, and receive the blessing. God continues to do great things with limited resources, and I believe that God wants us to succeed where we may or may not have in the past.

Runners don't look back. They keep their eyes trained on the prize that is before them. Looking to what is ahead, their stride changes, and their bodies adapt—focusing on what matters the most, finishing the race, and going home. None of us know how many more trips around the sun we have. Let's make this one count as if it were our last—God with God's grace and the blessing of Jesus and the Holy Spirit. RUN your race with dignity, pride, and honor. Above all, keep your eyes fixed on the cross of Jesus.

In Christ,

Rev. Daniel J. Bradley

P.s. I want you to know that I am privileged to have Rev. Kinney as a friend and colleague, and I am thankful every time that he fills in for me when I am away. He will always run faster than me; perhaps he will escape the bear! God Bless, Alan.

UMCOR is on Sunday, March 27, 2022 this year. Previously known as One Great Hour Of Sharing, this Sunday enables the United Methodist Committee on Relief to reach out through worldwide ministries of food, shelter, health and peace. UMCOR equips local churches, annual conferences and nonprofit organizations to be in mission with their communities and to respond to those left most vulnerable during challenging times. Also, UMCOR doesn't just respond to the emergency for the short term. Working with local organizations, churches in the community and United Methodist volunteers, UMCOR builds relationships and helps communities rebuild, in the years following a disaster. Your sustaining gifts on UMCOR Sunday lay the foundation for UMCOR to share God's love with communities everywhere.

Do you want to sing or play an instrument?

7778 Brewerton Road

Location:

7778 Brewerton Rd.
Cicero, NY 13039
(Across from the Coppertop and next to Dunkin Donuts)

Store hours:

Tuesday	4 pm - 7 pm
Wednesday	10 am - 4 pm
Thursday	10 am - 4 pm
Saturday	10 am - 2 pm

Donation Drop-off :

Donations are accepted
Tuesdays from 9 am - 11 am and any day/time the store is open!

We have big things going on at C&B this month. The week of 2/8-2/12 we have a sale of 50% off everything red, white, pink (any or all colors just need to be included in the merchandise).

After meeting with the plumber on Friday evening, we have begun the process of incorporating the plumbing indoors versus outdoors which will save us some significant $$ as we won't have to run plumbing from the house basement to the driveway and cut into the driveway then repair it yay! The savings offers us the opportunity to raise the sorting room floor and run the pipes under the floor from the basement through the sorting room and into the store. If all works as planned we can cut into the two tile widths of the floor in the store on a Thursday evening, run pipe and re-cement on a Friday and be open again on Saturday! We are looking at affordable floor tiles to accent the repaired floor and the sorting room (it'll be beautiful)!

We have set up a display for the hats, mittens and scarf giveaway and had a great time sharing this mission provided to C&B by the Centerville Order of the Eastern Star! Please invite customers to take what they can use, could share with others or if they are walkers, they could take and leave in a tree on their walk as a way to 'pay-it-forward' to others. What doesn't get used will be brought to our friends (IMFK or Rise Above the Streets or the Neighborhood Church) in the city to give to those who need them.

We were able to get some 3 foot by 8 foot carpet runners for the main door. Mike talked with a Cintas guy at Novelis who changes out the uniforms and explained that we are wanting rugs for C&B (explained what we do) as people enter the store and asked if we could buy some from them.. he said they only rent but he could hook us up and brought us three carpets to keep! They clean up real great with that vacuum we have. God is Amazing and we're doing amazing things!!

Chocolate Cherry Loaf Cake

"Decadent and rich, but not too sweet, this fudgy Chocolate Cherry Loaf Cake is loaded with dark, sweet cherries and topped with a delicious mocha glaze. This yummy dessert can be made with either fresh or frozen sweet Bing cherries."

<https://lifeloveandgoodfood.com/chocolate-cherry-loaf-cake/>

INGREDIENTS

- ♦ 1 cup strong brewed coffee (hot)
- ♦ 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
- ♦ 1 cup all-purpose flour, plus 2 teaspoon
- ♦ 1 cup sugar
- ♦ 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ♦ 1/4 teaspoon salt
- ♦ 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- ♦ 1 egg
- ♦ 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- ♦ 1 cup sweet Bing cherries (fresh or frozen), pitted and roughly chopped
- ♦ 1/3 cup chocolate chips

COFFEE CHOCOLATE GLAZE:

- ♦ 1 cup sifted powdered sugar
- ♦ 2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa powder
- ♦ 2 to 3 tablespoons brewed coffee, cooled

DIRECTIONS

A few important notes: Don't skip using parchment paper in the bottom of the loaf pan as this cake bakes up moist and dense and parchment ensures the cake doesn't get stuck to the bottom. Also, if using frozen cherries, do not thaw beforehand and if using fresh cherries, remove the pits and roughly chop them. The cake should bake for about an hour, but to test the cake, insert a wooden pick into the center, if it comes out clean with just a few moist crumbs, then the cake is done, if the pick is wet, try another spot to verify that you didn't hit a cherry.

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Spray a 9x5 loaf pan with cooking spray and line the bottom with parchment paper.
2. In a glass measuring cup or bowl, whisk together the hot coffee and cocoa powder until smooth. Cool slightly, but keep warm.
3. In a large bowl, whisk together 1 cup all-purpose flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt.
4. In a smaller bowl, whisk together the oil, egg, and vanilla.
5. Pour the coffee mixture into the bowl with the dry ingredients and stir until just combined. Add the other wet ingredients and stir.
6. Toss the cherries with 2 teaspoons of flour and gently fold into the cake batter along with the chocolate chips.
7. Pour the batter into the prepared loaf pan and bake for 55-60 minutes, or until a wooden pick comes out clean.
8. Cool the cake in the loaf pan on a rack for 15 minutes, then remove the cake from the pan to finish cooling.

GLAZE:

1. Combine the powdered sugar and cocoa powder in a small bowl. Add the coffee one tablespoon at a time, stirring until the desired consistency is reached and the mixture is smooth.
2. Pour the glaze over the top of the cooled cake and let it drizzle over the sides. The glaze will set up within a few minutes.

Prep Time: 15 mins.

Cook Time: 1 hr.

Yield: 10 slices

Dear Faith Journey UMC:

Once again, on behalf of those four communities in South Sudan, I offer a thank-you for the recent contribution of $170. This money was combined with other donations given to the Southern Sudan Health Projects at Christmas time, to fund the salaries of the eight Home Health Providers. Every day these Home Health Promoters work to advance the health care of thousands of people. My hope is that as a congregation, you continue to celebrate being part of what I believe God is doing in that part of the world.

In God's Love,
Rev. Bradford Hunt
