In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup> The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. - Genesis 1:1

There is no rhyme or reason why things turn out the way they do. Sometimes in life, all you can do is sit and watch the events unfold before your eyes. I have tried to make sense of our unfortunate situation with our transmission dying on our way home. At first, it was too much to take in, but I can now see how the good things from that event outweighed the minor first-world inconvenience.

When we were first towed to the truck center, we found out that it was one of the biggest truck repair centers in Wisconsin. They were more than able to handle the job of replacing the transmission. They were gracious enough to get us to a campground for the night, so we weren't parked in their lot. While this was an inconvenience, it gave us time to come together as a family and work through the solution.

One by one, everything fell into place, and we were on our way home. It was a journey of a lifetime. Kiah rode with me in the U-Haul and talked my ear off while Mary traveled in front of us in the rental car. We continued to enjoy our trip, even if it was interrupted by life. One of the greatest blessings was that Mary could travel with her brother Duane and his wife Tina to Wisconsin this week to retrieve the truck. I imagine the lively conversations on that trip were worth more than the cost of repairing 'Gracie Belle.'

The picture of the great grizzly bear is from a preserve in Montana. This bear could not be released back into the wild because it tends to wander the local town and was a nuisance. If you ask me, the bear is just doing what a bear does. This bear was a beautiful specimen that would turn over rocks and forage for fish in the stream. I imagine he had a far better feeding experience than if he had been left in civilization foraging through trash cans and destroying property. Bears like this one are not the problem; we are.

As humans, we build our homes and civilization in the path of nature and expect nature to get out of our way. It's a pretty arrogant way to live, but we do it all the time. How can we co-exist with nature and the world God gave us without causing destruction? That is the question that philosophers and scientists alike have been asking for millennia. We must think more significantly beyond this world and into the next. We must look at the impact our actions have on this world. After all, when we push up daisies, will anything be left for our children and grandchildren?

God created this world with the idea that we would be stewards of creation. It is lush and plentiful and continues to sustain life despite all the abuse we have subjected it to. It is something that we ought to pay attention to because if we don't, it will be gone, and we will be left wondering, "What have we done?" The great hymn of the faith, This is my Father's World, reminds us that we are living in God's creation and at the heart of that creation is God's only Son, Jesus.

This is my Father's world,
And to my listening ears
All nature sings, and round me rings
The music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas--
His hand the wonders wrought.

2 This is my Father's world:
The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white,
Declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world:
He shines in all that's fair;
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass,
He speaks to me everywhere.

3 This is my Father's world:
O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world:
Why should my heart be sad?
The Lord is King: let the heavens ring!
God reigns; let earth be glad!

There is a lot of speculation these days about the world's future. Will it continue? Will Jesus return? I believe both are true. The world will continue as long as God wills it to, and yes, Jesus will return. I am a firm believer that when that day comes that Jesus returns, there will be a lot to give account. How we built relationships and helped others find God will be the primary focus. How we handled creation will be the next question.

Each of us plays an integral part in this world from the moment we enter it to the moment we depart. Everything we do impacts the world in which we live. To simply throw our hands up in the air and say there is nothing that we can do is foolish and untrue.

We live in one of the wealthiest countries in the world. We have first-world problems. People living in third-world countries have real problems. My transmission dying was an inconvenience, but it is over and done. Someone in a third-world country who doesn't have running water and sanitation is an ecological and health crisis that needs to be remedied. We have all the wealth in the world, and we can do more than we can possibly conceive or imagine if we could be content with what we have and spend more time and resources helping others in need.

As I write today, I am reminded of our mission statement at Faith Journey United Methodist Church "We Seek God, to Serve God, to Share God with Others." I dare you to put that on your refrigerator door and look at it every time you go to the fridge and then ask yourself, "How can I be a better steward of what I have that I might affect change for this world and another person?"

Be the change you want to see in this world...don't wait; it might just be too late.

In Christ,

Thank you to Nick Berra and Operation Northern Comfort for installing our accessibility ramp today! It's been 5 years in the planning and we couldn't be happier! Nick drives all over the country removing accessibility ramps that are no longer used and repurposes them for organizations and families who are in need! Volunteers from Operation Northern Comfort come, size / plan for the ramp, assist in getting necessary permits and install at no cost! ### SCRIPTURE OF THE MONTH - SEPTEMBER - "SIMPLE PLEASURES"

"Go, eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine with a joyful heart, for God has already approved what you do." - Ecclesiastes 9:7

Goodbye
SUMMER
hello
AUTUMN

September

With summer coming to an end, I realize how much I am looking forward to the cooler weather. It's been so hot that I am not going to mind the breezy, fall season. August literally flew by so fast, but it was full of fun, tons of sun and memories with the family. It's been so nice going to my in-laws on the sunny weekends to enjoy their pool and beautiful backyard. Peanut, my 2 year old dog, whose birthday was on August 20th, has been swimming several times and is getting less fearful of the water. He has grown up so much and has developed into a happy, healthy and extremely GOOD BOY! I am so proud of him and love him so much, he has been the biggest blessing and gift from God, especially through the last few years and all the pandemic turmoil. Check out the Canine Carnival below and spend the day with your furry family members at a local event!

CANINE CARNIVAL PRESENTED BY STAFFWORKS RETURNS ON SEPTEMBER 17, 2022!

10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Canine Carnival began as an idea by Wayne Mahar as a tribute to his mom and has become a major event for Syracuse and Central New York. Over the years, it has grown to become one of the largest animal rescue events in the country attracting people and rescue organizations from across Central New York. Over the past 10 years, Canine Carnival, in partnership with the Priscilla Mahar Animal Welfare Foundation, the charity behind the carnival - has donated nearly a quarter million dollars to CNY animal rescues! Come join us for a day full of fun, food and enjoyment and to see all types of animals looking for loving homes. There will be 50 rescue organizations and dozens of vendors of foods, goods and service and animal demonstrations. The event goes on rain or shine! You may bring your dogs, but they must be on a 4-5 foot non-retractable leash for safety purposes. Proceeds benefit the Priscilla Mahar Animal Welfare Foundation, a 501c3 nonprofit.

Creamy Crockpot White Chicken Chili

"This flavorful White Chicken Chili is so deliciously savory with just the right amount of spice! Plus, it's almost effortless since it cooks in your slow cooker. It's perfect for those chilly Fall nights and also great for game day since you can feed quite a few people with this chili and if you bring a skillet of cornbread alongside, you'll love it!"

<https://www.thechunkychef.com/slow-cooker-creamy-white-chicken-chili/>

Recipe by: Amanda, The Chunky Chef

INGREDIENTS

Ingredients:

- ◆ 1 lb boneless skinless chicken breasts (trimmed of excess fat)
- ◆ 1 yellow onion (diced)
- ◆ 2 cloves garlic (minced)
- ◆ 24 oz. chicken broth (low sodium)
- ◆ 2 15oz cans great Northern beans (drained and rinsed)
- ◆ 2 4oz cans diced green chiles (I do one hot, one mild)
- ◆ 1 15oz can whole kernel corn (drained)
- ◆ 1 tsp salt
- ◆ 1/2 tsp black pepper
- ◆ 1 tsp oregano
- ◆ 3/4 tsp oregano
- ◆ 1/2 tsp chili powder
- ◆ 1/4 tsp cayenne pepper
- ◆ Small handful fresh cilantro (chopped)
- ◆ 4 oz reduced fat cream cheese (softened)
- ◆ 1/4 cup half and half

Toppings:

- ◆ Sliced jalapenos
- ◆ Sliced avocados
- ◆ Dollop of sour cream
- ◆ Minced fresh cilantro
- ◆ Tortilla strips
- ◆ Shredded Monterey jack or Mexican cheese

DIRECTIONS

1. Add chicken to slow cooker
2. Top with seasonings
3. Add onion, garlic, beans, chiles, corn, cilantro and chicken broth
4. Cover and cook on low for 8 hours
5. Remove chicken to a plate and shred, then return to slow cooker
6. Add cream cheese and half and half
7. Cover and cook on high for 15 minutes
8. Serve and enjoy!

Additional Tips*

- Be mindful of heat levels - there are several heat levels for diced green chiles, so be sure you're getting the one you really want. The hot versions can be pretty spicy!
- Go crazy with toppings - like most chilis, you can top this recipe with so many delicious things, Tortilla chips, jalapenos, sour cream, cheese, cilantro, green onions, avocados, etc.

Variations of this recipe*

- Protein swap - try making this chili with leftover shredded turkey!
- Extra protein - try adding a can of black beans, just make sure you drain and rinse them, or they can turn your chili an odd color
- Add heat - for a spicier chili, try using the hot variety of green chiles, and/or add some diced jalapeno to the slow cooker
- Non-Dairy - you can enjoy this chili without adding the cream cheese and half and half

* A lot of creamy white chicken chili recipes don't have corn in them, but I added some here because the subtle sweetness goes really well with the heat level from the green chiles.

STORAGE:

Chicken chili can be kept refrigerated in an airtight container for 4-5 days. This recipe can also be made ahead of time and freezes beautifully, with some minor adjustments. Complete the recipe through step 4, then cool completely and freeze. Thaw overnight in the refrigerator. When reheating, add cream cheese and half and half and serve as desired.
